DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The amendment filed March 3, 2003 is objected to under 35 U.S.C. 132 because it introduces new matter into the disclosure. 35 U.S.C. 132 states that no amendment shall introduce new matter into the disclosure of the invention. The added material which is not supported by the original disclosure is as follows: the amendment to page 2 changing the language of "[I]t is known" to "[O]ne aspect of the invention is". This amendment to the specification clearly changes the disclosure and there is no factual evidence on this record that the original language was not part of the French priority application.

Applicant is required to cancel the new matter in the reply to this Office Action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-5 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over applicants' disclosure on page 1, line 13 through page 2, line 16 of the specification, for reasons of record.

4. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nieman et al, 4,163,827 in view of applicants' disclosure on page 1, line 13 through page 2, line 16 of the specification, for reasons of record.

5. Claims 8-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nieman, '827 in view of applicants' disclosure on page 1, line 13 through page 2, line 16 of the specification, further in view of King et al, 6,346,135 B1, for reasons of record.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments filed March 3, 2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicants argue that the reference relied upon and quoted by the examiner on page 2, line 16 of the specification is due to an error that occurred in the preparing and filing of two French applications and that the first French application No. 00.08284, filed in June, 2000, upon which the present application contains priority and was directed to the invention of claims 1-7 did not contain the quoted passage.

In this concern, applicants' cannot rely upon the foreign priority document to overcome these rejections in the absence of a verified English language translation of the French priority document No. 00.08284, as filed.

Applicants argue that the proposed amendment to the specification is a correction of an obvious error in the specification.

In this concern, this argument is not found to be persuasive for the reasons stated previously by the examiner.

No claims are allowed.

Conclusion

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
